

January 2013

Dear Crafter,

It's time to make plans for the 38th annual CAVAC Arts and Crafts show which will be held on Saturday, July 6th and Sunday, July 7th, 2013. Enclosed you will find a brochure outlining all of the show information, as well as the Exhibit Space Application and Contract, and a Jewelry Information Sheet for all Jewelry Crafters. Please review this information and submit your application no later than April 15, 2013.

Please submit at least two photos representing your art or craft with your application. These photos may be used for advertising purposes on our web, and will be reviewed by our Arts & Crafts Committee to promote a diversified Craft Fair. Photos can be sent with your application or e-mailed to the address provided within the brochure.

All items must be handcrafted by the participating Artist.

Special note to jewelers: we will be placing a limit on the number of jewelry artists we can accept so please get your applications in early. All other artists participating, please note on the application if you will also be selling jewelry at your booth.

We look forward to having you with us this year. As in the past, there will be crafters from several states as well as the CNY area.
